

From China to Chile, Mexico to Italy, and from Switzerland to South Africa, the world is being dragged through a tunnel of despair, doom and uncertainty, with a collective fear of the unknown putting civilization and economies at great risk.

COVID-19 may be the most powerful adversary Nigeria has ever faced, but with our unity of purpose it can be defeated. Now is the time to draw from our wellspring of courage to challenge the virus and conquer it.

It is time to take responsibility for one another and truly be our brother and sister's keeper, with overall support across all ages, races, tribes, political and religious affiliations.

Out of this collective desire to protect and preserve humanity, the Coalition Against COVID-19 (CACOVID) was born, to fight the spread of the virus in Nigeria; a singular mission worth fighting for.

With sustained focus on putting in place all the measures needed to flatten the curve in the shortest possible time, the members of this Coalition have no doubt in their will and capacity to overcome COVID-19 and preserve this country for future generations yet unborn.
